ASIAN GROUPS WILL SPONSOR PEACE PLAN

To Ask Veto-Free Assembly to Link Move With Far Eastern Discussion

RESOLUTIONS READY

BULLETIN
Lake Success, Dec. 12—(P)—The United States and Britain today threw their support behind a middle East-Asian proposal to seek a basis for a Korean cease-fire. The U. S. insisted, however, that other Asian problems cannot be discussed until the Korean fighting ends. The two big western powers spoke immediately after India's Sir Benegal N. Rau laid before the General Assembly's political committee the plan of the Asian and Middle East countries. This plan called both for a special group to seek a basis for a cease-fire and for another group to seek a settlement of all outstanding issues in the Far East.

Lake Success, Dec. 12—(P)—Twelve Asian and Middle East countries today laid before the United Nations a double-barrelled peace plan designed to halt the fighting in Korea and resolve other far eastern problems.

The plan was embodied in two resolutions worked out in a series of closed-door conferences and circulated just before the political committee of the general assembly met this morning.

The resolutions were transmitted to the state department immediately by the U. S. delegation. A spokesman said the delegation would not comment until it had received high-level reaction from Washington.

One of the proposals would create a three-man commission headed by assembly president Nasrallah Entezam of Iran, to determine the basis on which a satisfactory cease-fire in Korea can be arranged. The other two members would be named by Entezam.

Informed quarters said this formula was adopted to meet U. S. objections to an outright cease-fire, which might leave the way open for a continued build-up of (Turn to Page Eight)

High Prices Drive Agriculture Dep't And Some Consumers Out of Egg Market

Washington, Dec. 12—(P)—High prices have driven the agriculture department as well as some consumers out of the market for eggs. Officials said today the department has bought none during the last two weeks and less than one half of one percent of the production during the last two months.

For the year to date, the department has bought about six percent of egg production under a price support program the agency buys eggs only when prices drop to about 25 cents a dozen in the mid-west, the surplus producing area of the country. Most of this year's purchases were made by midsummer.

Its buying has been limited to dried eggs. These eggs are processed chiefly from low quality, ungraded eggs for which there is no consumer market.

Department buying has been heaviest in the late winter and spring. Egg production is largest in this period. It far outstrips consumer demands. For example, hens this year laid 60 per cent more eggs in April than in November.

It is this difference in rate of production that is largely responsible for surpluses and low farm prices in the first half of the year and shorter supplies and high prices in the last half of the year. Department holdings of dried eggs have been sold abroad at very low prices. The department now holds about 82,500,000 pounds.

Christmas Present For Stockholders

Renovo, Dec. 12—(P)—A 14th well was ready to go into operation today at Pennsylvania's newest natural gas field.

The new well, with an estimated flow of 35,000,000 cubic feet a day, "blew" in yesterday on the Owen Repetto farm in Leidy township. The largest well in the field came in last summer with a volume of between 53,000,000 and 56,000,000 cubic feet a day.

Some 400 local stockholders in the Leidy Prospecting Company will receive their third 100 per cent dividend Friday.

Powerful Move On To Increase Salary Levels Of Teachers

Harrisburg, Dec. 12—(P)—A powerful move was underway today to boost salary levels of Pennsylvania's 60,000 public school teachers by an average of $600 a year.

The proposal was advanced by the Pennsylvania State Education Association's committee on legislation.

The committee recommended an upward revision in both present minimum and maximum teacher salary levels in the state.

It also urged the 1951 legislature be asked to increase the maximum state school subsidy from $3,450 to $4,000 a year to help pay the cost.

Such a subsidy increase would add an estimated $92,000,000 to (Turn to Page Eight)

ARTIFICIAL SNOW FOR TOWN ON COAST

San Gabriel, Calif., Dec. 12—(P)—This town may be in the Orange Blossom belt but the Chamber of Commerce has decided the kids are going to have some snow and ice before Christmas.

A small snowstorm has been scheduled for Thursday in the city park as a prelude to the Yule season. Chamber officials have ordered snow machines from a Hollywood studio and 50,000 pounds of ice are being donated by a Pasadena firm.

The machines will shave the ice and blowers will spread it over the ground.

Large Christmas Displays To Be Ready For Lighting Friday, Jaycees Report

A large group of Warren Jaycees headed by co-chairmen Jim Bailey and Dick Curran worked outside last night well past 11 o'clock continuing work on the outdoor Christmas displays.

Good progress is now being made on the exhibits which will be lighted Friday evening. Last night the giant "Jack in the Box" was erected, the large frame which will hold the backdrop for "Santa's Reindeer" was set up, and the "Nativity scene" was completed except for placing the figures. The wiring of the Merry Christmas sign was also finished last evening.

Another highlight of the evening was the presentation by Dr. Whipple of an "Organizer's Award" to Charles H. Frantz, Frank Fago and C. Vance Weld, Warren Scout leaders who have been active in formation of new Scout troops and Cub Packs.

Council Committee reports were made by William M. Hill, advancement; Calvin W. Barwis, camping; Dr. William L. Ball, health and safety; Ivan S. Brumagum, finance; Charles H. Frantz, organization and extension; and William L. Wehner, activities. Dr. Whipple reported for the Training Committee in the absence of the chairman, T. R. Sponster.

Reports also were heard and approved from C. A. Babcock, acting Scout Commissioner; Council Treasurer N. D. Paterson; and the Nominating Committee Chairman, Ivan S. Brumagum.

Dr. Whipple, in a president's message on the "Trail Ahead", cited the need for a greater training program for both Scouts and their leaders, and also the need for preparedness for emergency duty. He also announced that the County Council has received title to an additional 18.8 acres of land at Camp Jeffmore, boosting the Council's Jackson Run overnight camping area to a total of 33 acres.

It was disclosed that the council is planning four weeks of summer camp in 1951 at Camp Olmsted, starting July 14, and a goal of 400 boys for the camping period has been set.

Opening ceremonies for last night's council session were in charge of Scouts Joseph Pasquazzi, Phil Cerra and Louis Critelli and Scoutmaster Frank Fago, of the newly organized Troop 10 at the Holy Redeemer parish.

Three Injured In Two-Car Accident Near Sheffield

Two Ludlow ladies were injured, one seriously, in a two-car accident near Sheffield early yesterday afternoon. The driver of the car in which they were riding was also treated for minor injuries at the scene of the accident.

Luella Gustafson, 28, of Ludlow, was given emergency treatment at the scene of the accident by Dr. Thomas McHenry, of Sheffield, and then rushed to Kane Community Hospital by the Borden ambulance. She is suffering from a possible skull fracture and it was necessary to take 40 stitches to close lacerations about her head and face.

Alverda Hultman, 28, another passenger, was treated for abrasions of the left knee and right leg, and had two sutures applied over her right eye.

The driver of the car, Harry J. Steele, of Sheffield, was treated for a scalp laceration.

State police, who investigated, said that the accident took place on Route 6 at the west end of Sheffield at one o'clock yesterday afternoon when Steele, proceeding east, collided with a truck operated by Paul J. Coppola, 707 Pennsylvania avenue, east. They said that the road at the point of collision was a solid sheet of ice.

Coppola told police that he saw Steele approaching and was under the impression that Steele was on the wrong side of the road. He attempted to pull to the left to get into the driveway of the Cochran Garage, but didn't quite make it.

Coppola was uninjured. Damage to his car was estimated at $100, but Steele's car, a 1935 Plymouth, was termed a complete wreck by police. There were no arrests.

Condition of the road was evidenced by the fact that about two hours later, Private Daniel O'Shura, of the state police, driving a patrol car, collided at the same spot with a truck operated by James Hilton, of Dec. (Turn to Page Eight)

Ground breaking for Warren General Hospital's million dollar expansion program was held on the hospital grounds yesterday afternoon, with members of the hospital board and a small crowd of interested citizens braving the cold and snow to witness the ceremonies.

On hand to turn the initial spadeful of dirt for the new building was Miss Fannie Smith, only surviving member of the hospital's first board of trustees.

Miss Smith, who served on the hospital board for more than 30 years, recalled the first beginnings of the hospital in 1896 when a small group of workers from Warren churches organized the Door of Hope on Water street.

She said the Door of Hope was later moved to a building on Liberty street, and that it was here that the "first germ" for the present hospital was planted when Dr. J. M. Davies sought a place to care for his county patients.

This structure soon proved inadequate, Miss Smith recalled, and it was decided to build a full-fledged hospital. In 1898 Warren General Hospital was incorporated, and two years later actual construction was started. The first patients were moved from the Liberty street nursing home in December of 1900, and on January 14, 1901, the doors of Warren General Hospital were opened to the public.

Miss Smith congratulated the trustees of the hospital and the staff, and expressed the hope that their plans for the hospital will be fulfilled.

Miss Smith was introduced by R. Pierson Eaton, chairman of the present hospital board of trustees. Also taking part in the ceremonies were the Rev. Nore Gustafson, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, who offered the invocation, and Mrs. Hazel M. Smith, hospital superintendent, who expressed the appreciation of the hospital staff for the efforts on the part of the trustees to provide the most modern facilities available for treatment and care of patients.

She said the hospital now treats 1400 patients annually, in addition to handling some 1200 others who require emergency service.

Among those attending the ceremonies was Horace Platt, of Erie, president of the H. Platt contracting firm, general contractor for the new hospital building. He said his firm hopes to have the work completed by March, 1952.

A big power shovel had been moved onto the hospital grounds early yesterday afternoon, and as soon as the ground breaking ceremonies were completed, excavation work was started.

An informal reception for members of the hospital board, the press representatives, and other guests was held in the hospital dining room following the ceremonies, with Mrs. Horace Cray and Mrs. D. E. Conaway presiding at the serving tables.

CHANDLER DECIDES TO REMAIN ON JOB

St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 12—(P)—A. B. Chandler declared today he would stay on the job until the end of his term as baseball commissioner. His time is up May 1, 1952.

In a statement to the press, Chandler declared "I have been asked about my immediate and future plans. These embody no change from the schedule I had set up before I came to the meeting here."

Bulk of Allied Eighth Army Withdraws to 38th Parallel; Civilians Fleeing In Panic

By The Associated Press
Tokyo, Dec. 12—(P)—Some 27 Chinese Communist divisions—including 8,000 to 14,000 fierce Mongolian cavalrymen—today pressed menacing feelers toward South Korea after driving the bulk of the United Nations forces from the north.

Shaggy little Mongolian ponies and supply caravans of two-humped camels such as the medieval conqueror Genghis Khan used centuries ago gave bizarre but effective mobility to the vanguard of tied China's 1,000,000-man force as it streamed unopposed over almost all of North Korea.

In the west, the bulk of the Allied Eighth Army had withdrawn to parallel 38, the old boundary between North and South Korea.

In the northeast, most of the U. S. 10th Corps was huddled on the Hamhung coastal plain. This force was 130 air miles deep in Red Korea, but it was surrounded by Communist forces and the road south was blocked. At the nearby port of Hungnam, a U. N. fleet was standing by in readiness to evacuate the encircled 10th Corps.

An American army regiment, the Seventh Division's 17th that once stood on the Manchurian border, was somewhere in the frozen wasteland and presumably withdrawing toward Hungnam. Its movements were shrouded for security reasons.

So, too, were the positions of two South Korean divisions, the Third and Capital. At full strength they would total about 20,000 men.

They had struck along the northeast coast within 40 miles of Soviet Siberia when masses of Red Chinese turned the tide and the order was given to withdraw.

The climactic point of collapse in the campaign sponsored by 53 non-Communist nations to smash Red Korean aggression and unify the divided country was accompanied by near-panic among Korean civilians.

Hordes of non-military Koreans—and probably some Fifth Columnists—were swarming southward across the frozen countryside. They crowded into every available vehicle or trudged through the snow and along roads and trails. Whole villages were on the move in queues of desperation—or opportunity in the case of disguised Reds.

Anxiety was apparent in South Korea's capital of Seoul. Lines of refugees streamed southward from the city as the crowds entered from the north with the feeling of insecurity unabated. Korean President Syngman Rhee planned an appeal to halt the migration.

There was virtually no fighting contact between the Communists and Allied ground forces.

General MacArthur's headquarters said the Chinese Reds were advancing slowly. Their troop mass appeared to be turning toward the center of the peninsula where there is no Allied line.

MacArthur's headquarters said two Mongolian Cavalry Divisions—with winter-hardened Mongol ponies and camel trains—had been spotted in Korea. They were described as "lightly armed . . . extremely mobile and capable of traversing the roughest terrain."

MacArthur's headquarters said 27 Chinese divisions—about 270,000 men—now have crossed the Manchurian border. This was the vanguard of more than 1,000,000 troops MacArthur said the Chinese labor.

In its petition for the investigation, the state charged four men with misuse of city materials and labor.

With community singing as its goal, the annual Carol Festival at Beaty Junior High School next Monday evening will include group singing by the audience and the choir, numbers sung by the choir, and instrumental music by the orchestra.

The program, scheduled to start at eight o'clock, has in former years proved so popular that it has been necessary to turn away several hundred persons because of limited space.

A musical Christmas greeting will be sung by the 150 voices of the a cappella choir, the second choir, and the Beaty chorus, before Carol Fowler leads the audience and choir in a group of familiar carols. Harry Summers will direct the orchestra in several selections. The audience will again be invited to join in the singing of carols, after which the high school a cappella choir will sing a group of five numbers, with Beverly Taft as soloist in "Lullaby on Christmas Eve."

After more community singing, the combined choir, accompanied by Stavroula Famps, will give a Christmas cantata, "The Shepherds' Christmas" by M. Luvaas, director of music at Allegheny College.

A traditional closing, including "The Hallelujah Chorus", with Carol Barrett as accompanist, will end the program. Before this final number an invitation will be given to former choir members and to other singers in the audience to sing.

Already chartered buses have brought visitors from Baltimore, Washington, New York, cities in New Jersey and Delaware as well as many in Pennsylvania itself.

In addition to the big star and the "great bright way," the city's Christmas attractions include a 70-foot tree—made of more than 100 smaller evergreens fastened together.

The gifts and the money came from a special fund raised by the honorary first defenders—an organization of businessmen dedicated to work on behalf of the city's soldiers, sailors, marines, Wacs and Waves.

The Bethlehem Globe Times is planning its annual special Christmas edition.

In that edition, only news pertaining to Christmas will be used on page one and all stories of crime or violence will be relegated to inside columns.

Atlee Reports To Commons Results Of His Conferences

London, Dec. 12—(P)—Prime Minister Atlee told the house of commons today "I have good hopes that the forces of the United Nations will maintain themselves in Korea."

Parliament members cheered the announcement, made as a report on the prime minister's world crisis talks with President Truman in Washington and Canadian leaders in Ottawa. The prime minister returned by plane from his North American trip today, immediately reported to King George and held a conference with his cabinet.

Outlining to the house the results of the trip, Atlee said: "Korea and the Far East we have agreed on the immediate course which our representatives at the United Nations should follow."

"We were agreed that aggression must be halted and we were equally certain that every effort should be made to prevent an extension of the conflict."

"Our long range objective is to reach a stable position in the Far East."

Conservative Leader Winston Churchill asked for further information on any projected use of the atom bomb.

Atlee replied that he was "completely satisfied" with President Truman's position on the use of the bomb.

"I would ask the house to accept my assurance that there is no difference of opinion between us (Turn to Page Eight)

MARGARET APPEARS IN CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Dec. 12—(P)—Margaret Truman's singing brought applause for two encores last night from an appreciative audience of 1,500.

But a newspaper critic termed her voice "not suited to operatic arias or orchestral accompaniment."

Miss Truman was guest soloist with the Chattanooga Symphony orchestra.

Critic Ruth Golden of the Chattanooga Times commented:

"Miss Truman is a gracious artist x x x and she was at all times winning and charming. Unfortunately Miss Truman's voice is not suited to operatic arias or orchestral accompaniment."

Nation's "Christmas City" Preparing For Mass Influx of Yuletide Visitors

Bethlehem, Dec. 12—(P)—The nation's "Christmas City" is busy today preparing for a mass influx of yuletide visitors seeking a glimpse of the famed 90-foot star of Bethlehem atop South Mountain.

On Saturday this steel center expects to see 100,000 cars move slowly down the seven-mile stretch of gayly-lighted streets in the city's business district.

All this is Bethlehem's expression of its desire for peace on earth, goodwill toward men. The huge electric star and the multi-colored street lights were officially turned on Dec. 5. Each day since then the flow of traffic has increased. The peak will be reached the Saturday before Christmas.

Already chartered buses have brought visitors from Baltimore,

Warren Dentists Elect Officers And Hear Symposium

The Warren County Dental Society held its December meeting on Monday evening, at the Hotel Carver with eleven dentists present.

The program consisted of dinner at 6:30, followed by a business meeting and at 8:30 received the second two hour symposium in the current series of the telephone extension programs emanating from Chicago.

Dr. V. H. McAlpin was re-elected president of the Warren County Dental Society for 1951, and Dr. Robert S. Gibb was elected secretary-treasurer. Members present were: Dr. J. A. Allen, Sheffield; Dr. Wm. G. DeForest, Dr. J. R. Elliott, Dr. R. S. Gibb, Dr. E. N. Jackson, R. C. Maneval, Dr. V. H. McAlpin, Dr. E. W. Myers, Dr. J. E. Richards, Dr. W. J. Sedwick, Warren, and Dr. A. N. Stillings, Youngsville.

The subject for this symposium was "Periodontia". The following phases of this subject were discussed by six panel members: Progress in periodontia, classification and diagnosis of periodontal disease, the problem of reattachment, subgingival curettage, surgical treatment of periodontal disease, and occlusion and its relation to periodontal disease.

An old belief that "pyorrhea" or disease of the gum tissue is incurable was repudiated by the panel of six dental scientists participating in the University of Illinois' postgraduate extension program.

The specialists told an audience of more than 9,000 dentists that, in most cases, periodontal disease which affects the gum tissue and the bone supporting the teeth can be both prevented and cured.

Their remarks were transmitted from Chicago by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to 255 dental societies and study clubs throughout the United States and Canada, including the Warren County Dental Society.

Participants in the two-hour session were Dr. Saul Levy of the University of Illinois, who served as moderator, Dr. Balint J. Orban of Colorado Springs, Colo., Dr. Henry M. Goldman of Boston, Mass., Dr. Dickson G. Bell of the University of California, Dr. Olin Kirkland of Montgomery, Ala., and Dr. Samuel C. Miller of New York University.

Periodontal disease is responsible for the loss of more teeth than any other single cause. Nevertheless, the dental specialists pointed out that periodontal disease not only could be prevented, but that it also could be eradicated in a very great majority of cases, especially if it is recognized early and treated adequately.

They disclosed that the dental profession has made definite strides recently in preventing and treating periodontal disease. This progress has been due to the extensive biologic, histopathologic, and chemical research which has been conducted during the past 30 years. Continued studies now are paying the way for scientific advances toward an even greater understanding of the nature of the disease, toward a more rational basis of diagnosis and treatment, and toward its eventual prevention.

The toll of periodontal disease has left in its wake innumerable dental cripples. It has been estimated that 42 percent of all teeth lost by adults over 40 years of age are due to periodontal disease.

Periodontal disease is not limited to adults, as is commonly believed, but frequently is found in children. Some 17 percent of all

Dragon Cagers Battle Strong Tech Squad at Erie Tonight

Warren High Dragons make their first road jaunt of the season tonight for a battle with Erie Tech at Erie.

The Dragons will be gunning for their fourth win in as many starts, having previously conquered Youngsville, Johnsonburg and Corry.

But the road ahead tonight will be a rocky one. Tech has a powerful team this year and demonstrated it last Friday by edging Meadville, 59-55. Meadville has a veteran combine this year and is rated as one of the strongest contenders for Section 2 honors. Tech also won its opening game of the season.

Pace setters for the Erie squad are Ed Rutkowski, forward, and Don Polagyl, guard, who counted 14 and 13 points, respectively against the Bulldogs. Tech lost one of its starters, Carmen Ruzzi, via the personal foul route, but his sub, Rip Rzepecki, capably filled Ruzzi's shoes by racking up nine points.

Numerous other scholastic basketball games also are on the schedule tonight.

Sheffield Wolverines also take to the road tonight for a clash with the Mt. Jewett Magicians. Sheffield opened its season against Mt. Jewett, and is expected to encounter little difficulty in repeating as victors.

The Sugar Grove five swings into action for the third time tonight when the squad faces Bloomfield on the Bloomfield court. The Grovers won their first game against Titusville St. Joe's but dropped their second tilt to Spangsbury.

Other games listed include: Spartansburg at Wattsburg, Oil City at Mercer, Corry at Titusville.

Fran Masterson, head of membership, had secured one new member, John Johnson, and will attempt to secure more for the induction postponed to next Monday night.

Primus Allen Anderson appointed Gerald Huber as co-chairman of the holiday dance, "Crystal Mist", to be held December 30 with the Phi Zeta Chi Sub-Deb Club. Other members appointed were Francis Masterson on decorations and Bill Lord as co-chairman of the ticket committee.

Next Sunday a group of the members will attend the First Methodist church service and will meet together at 10 o'clock for breakfast before the service.

Club members also agreed upon purchasing a plaque to be placed in honor of boys in service, who assisted in making the Warren Youth Canteen possible.

Sparked by a committee with Bob Johnson as chairman, the Christmas tree sale project of the Jaycees is well organized. A call has been issued for volunteers to help cut and bring in trees Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Members who plan to assist are reminded to report at the YMCA Friday at five p. m., Saturday at ten a. m. and Sunday at eleven a. m.

The trees will be sold from the tennis court just north of the YMCA building in Liberty street, and salesmen will be on duty all day Sunday for convenience of persons who may desire to pick them up at that time.

The trees are being cut from the property of Howard Alexander on Irvine Run, and cutting may be arranged for organizations or individuals who desire trees of special sizes. Delivery service will also be provided.

For further information persons interested, as well as Jaycees members are advised to call Bob Johnson at 5599-R-3.

The proceeds from the sale will go into the general fund of the Jaycees to help finance the many community projects that are sponsored and assisted by the organization.

The Christmas Story

AP Newsfeatures
Americans, although of many nationalities, are completely in unison about Christmas customs in the United States.

We adopt the symbol of Santa Claus from Holland, the Christmas tree from Germany, Christmas (shoes) and stockings from Belgium and Christmas cards and "Merry Christmas" greetings from England. America has contributed the turkey dinner and the poinsettia as a decoration.

All over the world Christmas bells peal forth the birth of Christ and the nativity is the great holy picture carried in the hearts of the faithful on Christmas morning.

Many of our customs are of English origin and in England these old traditional customs still are observed. In olden days English manor houses were open to all and tables were laden with sirloins of beef, mince pies and foaming ale. Today although our menu is varied, we still leave our homes and hearts open during the Yuletide.

The English Yule log and the

SURVIVAL UNDER ATOMIC ATTACK

Reprint of an official government booklet on the dangers of the A-Bomb and how to meet them, submitted by the Publicity Committee of the Warren County Civil Defense Council.

(Editor's Note—Following is the second of a series of articles setting forth the true dangers of the atomic bomb and how steps can be taken to escape them. The articles are taken from an official U. S. government booklet, "Survival Under Atomic Attack.")

Flash burns from the A-bomb's light and heat caused about 30 per cent of the injuries at Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Near the center of the burst the burns are often fatal. People may be seriously burned more than a mile away, while the heat can be felt on the bare face and hands at 4 or 5 miles.

To prevent flash burns, try to find a shelter where there is a wall, a high bank or some other object between you and the bursting bomb. You can expect that the bomber will aim for the city's biggest collection of industrial buildings.

A little bit of solid material will provide flash protection even close to the explosion. Farther out, the thinnest sort of thing—even cotton cloth—will often do the trick.

If you work in the open, always wear full-length, loose-fitting, light colored clothes in time of emergency. Never go around with your sleeves rolled up. Always wear a hat—the brim may save you a serious face burn.

In all stories about atomic weapons there is a great deal about radioactivity.

Radioactivity is the only way—besides size—in which the effects of A or H bombs are different from ordinary bombs. But, with the exception of underwater or ground explosions, the radioactivity from atomic bursts is much less to be feared than blast and heat.

Radio activity is not new or mysterious. In the form of cosmic rays from the sky, all of us have been continually bombarded by radiation every hour and day of our lives. We all have also breathed and eaten very small amounts of radioactive materials without ever knowing it. For over half a century, doctors and scientists have experimented and worked with X-rays and other penetrating form of energy. Because of all this experience, we actually know much more about radioactivity and what it does to people than we know about infantile paralysis, colds, or some other common diseases.

It is easy to understand how radioactivity works if we think of how sunlight behaves.

In the northern part of the world, winter's slanting sunrays seldom cause sunburn, but the hotter rays of the summer sun often do. Still, just a few moments in the mid-summer sun will not give you a tan or sunburn. You have to stay in its hot rays for some time before you get a burn. What's more, bad sunburn on just the face and hands may hurt, but it won't seriously harm you. On the other hand, if it covers your whole body, it can make you very sick, or sometimes even cause death.

In the same way, the harm that can come to you from radioactivity will depend on the power of the rays and particles that strike you upon the length of time you are exposed to them, and on how much of your body is exposed.

Broadly speaking, atomic explosions produce two different kinds of radioactivity. First—and most important in an air burst—is an extremely powerful invisible burst of rays and particles thrown off at the time of explosion. This kind is called "initial" or explosive radioactivity. Its rays and particles fly out quickly, then promptly die. There is danger from them only for little more than a minute. The second type of radioactivity—lingering radioactivity—will be described later.

The injury range of the explosive radioactivity from a modern A-bomb is little over 1 mile, if the bomb is exploded much higher; some of the radiation may not reach the ground, so that the range may be less. If it is exploded much lower, the radiation also may not reach out as far, because it would be blocked by the ground or by buildings.

A little more than a mile away, the principal effects of the few dying rays that struck you could be seen only as temporary blood changes in a doctor's examination. You probably wouldn't even realize you had been exposed.

A little less than a mile from the explosion center, if you are unprotected, you are almost sure to suffer illness. Less than two-thirds of a mile away, those caught in the open are pretty sure to soak up a fatal dose of radioactivity.

Still, the possibility of your being caught without some protection is not very great. Even if you are on the street, there is a good chance that a building, or many buildings, will be between you and the burst, and they partially or completely shield you.

Atomic explosions high above the ground cause the most widespread damage. And, as happened in Japan, when an A-bomb goes off in the air you are far more likely to be hurt by the bomb's blast and heat waves than by its radioactivity. At Hiroshima and Nagasaki slightly over one-half of all deaths and injuries were caused by blast. Nearly one-third of the casualties were from the heat flash.

Radioactivity alone caused only about 15 per cent of all deaths and injuries.

If the bomb were to go off close to the ground, or slightly below the surface, the range of the explosive radiation, as well as the range of the blast and heat, would be reduced. This is due to the fact that all three would be partially blocked by the earth, by nearby buildings and by other obstacles.

In the underwater burst, there would be much less to fear from blast and nothing to fear from heat. Practically all the explosive radioactivity would be absorbed by the water. However, there would be the second type of radioactivity to be described later on.

Corydon Church To Have Annual Yule Party December 20

Corydon, Dec. 12—Members of the Church of the Nazarene congregation and Sunday school classes have set December 20 for the holding of the annual Christmas party and program. Rev. Viola Doverspike, pastor, will supervise the affair, assisted by Edith and Geraldine Crooks. There will be a gaily trimmed tree and children will be provided a gift. The Yuletide affair is expected to draw the usual good turnout.

Wednesday Night Social club members met with Mrs. Hulda Black. The evening, spent with 500, was followed with a supper-luncheon and the awarding of prizes.

The Wednesday Afternoon Club plans a Christmas party at a future date, with an exchange of will be held at the home of Mrs. Belle Whyte.

Flower tinting and arrangement occupied members of the Happy Club at the home of Miss Viola Doverspike. Refreshments and a social hour followed. Eight members were present.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Edith Freeman George, Bradford native and longtime resident of California. Visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lowell Johnston in Florida, she was taken ill and removed to a hospital where she died.

The many friends of Mrs. Martha Duggan were sorry to learn of her death in Warren General Hospital after a long illness. She was a former resident of Corydon, making her home here for a number of years before going to Warren.

Announcement is made of the marriage of George Hollister, Corydon native and recent resident, who, accompanied by his bride, has left to reside in Ormel, N. Y. Mr. Hollister's home here has been purchased by E. J. Landers, who will take possession in the spring.

Here Are Some Kind Words For the Browbeaten Parents

EVEN the experts who lay down the law to us parents about how to and how not to bring up Junior can mellow with the years in the mellowing they can come to see that parents are, after all, just human beings who can't always speak in a quiet but firm voice ignore Johnny's smart aleck actions, or resist the impulse to spank a little darling who is acting like a demon.

For proof I submit the statement of Miss Jessie Stanton, who for the past 25 years has been working with children in "progressive" or "modern" schools.

Says Miss Stanton: "I don't approve of spanking. It's just an easy way out. But I used to think it was terrible. I don't now. I can sympathize with parents, if once or twice a year, at the end of the day when they are all tired out, they give their child a spanking."

Thank you, Miss Stanton. That's what we parents need more than anything else—a little understanding from the experts. They make us feel guilty most of the time, but after all we are just human beings. We can't for 12 hours a day, every day in the year, handle Johnny exactly as the experts tell us to.

FORGIVENESS MEANS A LOT

[F] Johnny should be forgiven his badness on the grounds that he was tired and cross, or upset, surely Mama and Papa can occasionally be forgiven for being less than perfect parents on the same grounds. If it's wrong to make a child feel ashamed and inadequate—it's wrong to make parents feel that way, too. But that's what a lot of the experts do to us.

So thanks again, Miss Stanton, for your few kind words.

Directors of two one-act plays to be presented in the Warren Players' Studio on January 25, will hold tryouts Wednesday evening in the Woman's Club auditorium.

Mrs. John Trax, who will direct the modern comedy, "Pot Luck" by Katherine Arthur, needs a young couple and three older persons for her cast.

Synge's Irish classic "Riders to the Sea" to be directed by Mrs. Robert Dickinson, requires two young girls, an older woman, and a young man.

Newcomers in Warren Players are particularly urged to attend these readings. "Previous stage experience is an asset but not a necessary qualification," state Mrs. Raymond Steber and Mrs. Robert Israel, production managers for these studio plays. Anyone who is interested is welcome to read for the parts.

A copy of each play is on the reserve shelf at Warren Public Library for reading. The try-outs will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The Army Air Forces began Aug. 1, 1907, as the Aeronautical Division of the Army Signal Corps, and consisted of one officer and two enlisted men.

"Two Blind Mice"

Working with one of the largest casts assembled on a Warren Players' Club stage in several seasons, Evelyn Donnelly, director, and Monky McClure, production manager, turned out for the 64th public production one of the best evenings of entertainment the club has offered in many moons.

Granted that selection of Sam Spewack's "Two Blind Mice" and the Donnelly-McClure combination assured success of the venture right at the start, the show was superbly cast, each one bringing to his part that little something that brings a spontaneous hand from the audience. While it would be unfair to designate any individual as "best," each one fitting in and rounding out the neat performance, we will go so far as to say there are several real finds among the newcomers.

Rumors of this few thick and fast for several days prior to the performances. The leading man was out of town, several members of the cast were snowbound and couldn't get to rehearsals, parts hadn't been learned—as a matter of fact, some even went so far as to say the whole play might fall apart at the seams right in front of the audience.

But, like most rumors, these seemed to have little basis in fact. The net result seemed more like the good old days when Players was still a struggling newcomer itself and putting forth every effort to please its audiences.

"Two Blind Mice" was one of the few plays given in recent years that was down to earth and thoroughly understandable. It left no suggestion of the feeling that one is a fit study for a psychiatrist because he doesn't understand the deep purpose beneath it all.

We repeat: It was an evening of real fun and entertainment and we accord the flower of the month to the entire cast: Helen Morrow, Lois Byham, Art Langdon, Frances Comarco, Bob Trusler, Dick Mulhaupt, Dick Rapp, Jim Hill, Jo Dickinson, Fred Plummer, George Cunningham, Bob Dietrich, Frank Cruickshank, Bob Dunham, John Lasher, Bob Persche, Paul Mutzabaugh, Dave Smith, and the church choir which put in one brief but effective appearance.

Chinese Communist forces in Korea. The three-man body would get the interested countries to agree to fixed conditions for halting the conflict.

The second proposal would create another commission to meet as soon as possible and make recommendations for settling all issues in the far east. The sponsors left it up to the assembly to form this commission, but they envisaged a seven-nation body.

Introduction of these proposals was expected to shunt aside debate on a U. S.-backed resolution calling for immediate withdrawal of Chinese Communist troops from Korea. Most delegates have indicated privately they had little hope of getting the Peiping troops out of Korea by such an appeal.

The committee and the parent assembly were expected to adopt the cease fire resolution without difficulty, since its provisions appeared acceptable to the majority of the U. N. including the U. S.

An American spokesman said the U. S. delegation had not read the text of the second resolution and he could not say what its exact attitude would be. It was learned, however, that abstracts of its contents impressed the Americans as a form of appeasement and were completely unacceptable.

Gen. Romulo walked out of the conference, ostensibly to phone his wife and tell her he was kept late at Lake Success, in order not to vote for it in a meeting of 13 Asian countries which were considering the two proposals. He concurred in the first.

The PSEA's tax study committee, in estimating the cost of boosting the salary levels at $92,000,000, did not make any recommendation as to how the legislature should raise the money other than to say a "broad base" tax program should be adopted.

The legislative committee's proposals will go before the entire PSEA membership for ratification at its annual convention here Dec. 27-29. If approved, the proposed increase will be submitted to the 1951 legislature for action.

Bill Gordon's
"Partner" ...

Your grocer, Bill Gordon, has a "partner" who is very valuable to him, and Bill's business would suffer if his "partner" ever failed him. It never has. You see, Bill's partner is his daily newspaper. It brings him news ... it tells his customers about the food and bargains he has for them. His daily newspaper lets him know, in a brief but thorough manner, what his customers are thinking ... saying ... doing. It serves him in many other ways, too. In bringing Bill Gordon the news of his community, nation and the world, his newspaper doesn't do a helter-skelter job. It sifts and resifts the news so he won't have to do it himself. It brings him information by leaders in every field ... it tells him who won the ball game. In its editorial columns it discusses problems, exposes wrongs and works for him and his community every day in the year.

Yes, Bill Gordon's daily newspaper is all important to him — it's all important to you too.

Leading Areas Report Improvement in General Business During Month of Oct.

(Special To The Times-Mirror) State College.—While all leading areas of Pennsylvania reported an improvement in general business in October over a year ago, general business in the State fell 1 per cent from September to October.

This was reported today by the Bureau of Business Research at the Pennsylvania State College, which pointed out the Index of General Business fell from 326 to 324 from September to October. The index is based on bank deposits, factory payrolls, and industrial power sales and uses the years, 1935-39 as 100.

Steel production, factory payrolls, and average weekly and hourly earnings in industry showed new records for any month during October while other new records for the month were reported for telephones, postal receipts, building contracts, and new car and truck sales. Life insurance sales were the best in three years while carloadings and employee hours were up from 1949, as was bituminous coal production.

Practically all manufacturing areas and manufacturing groups showed gains in factory employment employee hours, and payrolls over a year ago. The best gains were noted in steel centers and in the durable goods industries, especially the primary metal ones.

Department store sales were up 7 per cent from 1949 but not at a new October high. New car and truck sales rose 40 per cent over last year in spite of heavier credit restrictions.

On the unfavorable side, anthracite coal production was the poorest since 1940 and while bituminous coal production was higher than in 1949 and 1945, it was otherwise the lowest since 1939. While building activity made a new October high, it was slowed down by credit restrictions, which also have restricted the sales of both appliances and television sets. The Index of General Business for October, as compared to that of a year ago, showed the percentage of increase indicated for principal industries areas of Pennsylvania: Allentown 45; Altoona 76; Bethlehem 64; Easton 30; Erie 29; Harrisburg 32; Johnstown 92; Lancaster 22 New Castle 30.

In the Warren area new October records were reported for postal receipts. Telephones and motor vehicle sales. Building operations were above 1949, as were industrial power sales. The postal receipts were listed at $117,913, and building operations at $53,925.

Five Emergencies Receive Treatment At Warren General

The emergency ward of Warren General Hospital was a busy place yesterday as the treatment of five emergency cases was necessitated by injuries. One of the patients was admitted for a time. Philip Laufenberger, 244 Pennsylvania avenue, west, employed at Warren Car Company, suffered the amputation of the first finger of his left hand when it was caught in a press. He was admitted for the operation, but discharged later in the day.

Joseph Scalise, 101 Dartmouth street, sustained a laceration of the bridge of the nose when he fell at St. Joseph's cemetery while acting as a bearer for the late Antonio Lucia. He was treated and discharged.

Lyle Rulander, 123 Onondaga avenue, sustained a scalp laceration when a box fell from a ladder and struck him while at work. He was discharged following application of skin clips.

Florence Lindstrom, Warren RD 2, fell on the steps of her home yesterday, receiving a deep laceration of the scalp which required seven sutures. She was discharged following treatment.

Evelyn Jenkins, Warren Star Route, sustained a fracture of the right ankle in a fall while crossing the road near her home. She was discharged following application of a cast.

Decorations At Youngsville Draw Words Of Praise

Youngsville, Dec. 12.—Residents are proud of the fine Christmas decorations provided by the Business People's Association. Christmas lights cross the streets through the business section, extending down to the East End store and some on West Main street. Saturday evening for the first time the lights were all on, including the decorated Christmas trees on the bridge in the center of town. Monday evening, for the first time a new attraction was lighted, a large star in the middle of the string of lights in the center of town just east of the bridge.

The Cradle Roll of the Methodist church will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday in the primary room of the church. All mothers of children three years old or under are invited to be present, bringing children in this age group. The Young Adult Class is sponsoring the refreshments and the WSCS is providing gifts for the children.

The regular Children's Day program of the Methodist Sunday school will be held December 20th, with the various departments taking part by classes.

Dorcas Class is having its Christmas dinner-meeting Tuesday evening, December 19th, at the home of the teacher, Miss Nellie Knapp. The dinner will be at 6:30 p. m., with an exchange of 25 cent gifts. A program of entertainment is being provided by members.

Secondary School Report Is Made To State Department

Among many routine reports given at the December meeting of school board was a copy of the annual secondary school report made to the State Department of Public Instruction. Prepared by Principals Floyd Bathurst and Herbert Harris, these were presented to the board by Superintendent of Schools Carl E. Whipple.

The report showed that at the close of October, 1950, there was a total attendance of 1,626 students in Beaty Junior High and Warren High schools. High school has an enrollment of 789 and Beaty, 837, with the total almost evenly divided between 810 boys and 816 girls.

In the high school, 37.1% of the students are non-residential. Beaty, 35.7%. These students come from Clarendon borough and nine townships: Conewango, Elfr. Glade, Kinzua, Mead, Pine Grove, Pleasant, Watson and Brokenstraw. In the present senior class 121 boys and 117 girls, the total of 238 contrasting with a membership of 299 when the same group was in ninth grade at Beaty.

A study of these figures shows that one out of five students has dropped out of school before graduation. According to the report, this record locally is a good one, since the latest figures for the state as a whole, the 1946 records, show that about one pupil in every two dropped out before graduation and a study covering a period of 19 years shows the highest record for the state was one in three. Comparison in the high school of resident and non-resident students shows a small advantage in favor of the borough. Those continuing on to graduation in the borough exceed the township figure by about 7%.

According to the best information Principal Bathurst has been able to secure, 40% of last June's 226 high school graduates have taken jobs in stores and offices, while 37.5% are attending schools, such as colleges, commercial schools, institutions for training of nurses, or schools of some other type. Factories and trades have taken 18.7%. Two and two-tenths per cent of the class, all boys, are in the armed services and one and three-tenths, all girls, are at home.

the hand would be over in one round.

However, West did not meld the tens. Afterwards he explained that he did not want to meld down too low when the pack was frozen. A really bad excuse. It was his duty to play for out.

The next round went by without incident and East still held his tens. Then poor West finally gave away the discard pile. North made four canastas and finally East put down his tens.

Sure enough West had held a pair of tens right along and if East had given him a chance he would have saved a couple of thousand points and the game.

Mr. Jacoby is unable to answer individual questions on Canasta from readers. However, he will include the most frequently asked questions in his column.

they could meld at all and the score at the start of the fourth and last hand was East and West 4500, North and South 3100.

East now proceeded to pick up one of those horrors without a wild card, an ace or much else. The opponents took the discard pile quickly and proceeded on their merry way. Meanwhile East's hand commenced to improve. He acquired three each of queens and jacks, pairs of kings and tens and one deuce. His next draw was a second deuce and he was in position to meld his 120 by using ten

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of aching backs, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. cards.

The situation at that time was that North and South had melded everything from the eights on down. South and West had each discarded kings and no aces, queens, jacks, tens or nines had appeared. South had melded down to five cards only while North still held about fifteen.

I made my mind up. I would meld 2-10-10, Q-Q-Q, J-J-J, put the second deuce with either the queens or the jacks, discard a king and hope. Not so with "ast. He saw that the man in back of him held five cards only and decided to freeze the pack. He discarded a deuce. West proceeded to meld Joker-Ace-Ace and 9-9-9 and discard safely. East drew another deuce. Again my mind was made up. I would meld my queens and jacks and throw a king. E st actually did.

Much to our disappointment (I always sympathize with the man I am watching) West could not add a card to either of those melds. East's next card draw was a third ten and I relaxed.

It was a cinch that his partner held one ten and maybe he held a couple. All my man had to do was to meld three tens and a deuce so as to tell his partner to add everything he could to the tens and

Western Pennsylvania Hospital Council Discusses Plans For Care of Casualties

Western Pennsylvania hospitals' preparations for the care of casualties that may be expected in event of war were outlined at a special meeting in Pittsburgh Thursday.

Mrs. Hazel Smith, superintendent of the Warren General hospital, is the Warren county chairman of the hospital division of civilian defense. J. F. Bovard, M. D., is chairman for Forest county.

Abraham Oseroff, secretary of the Hospital Council of Western Pennsylvania, stated that "the primary civil defense problem to be solved by hospital authorities is how to provide adequate hospital care to a civilian population in event of an atomic, biological, or chemical warfare attack upon any probable target area in the Pittsburgh district."

The Pittsburgh area hospital division is under the general chairmanship of Ross Leffler, civil defense coordinator. The area consists of 28 western counties of Pennsylvania. It is divided into seven districts, each headed by a chairman who is aided by county and community chairmen.

"The task of providing hospital care to casualties has many far-reaching ramifications which extend beyond the hospital room," Mr. Oseroff said. "There is the problem of hospital supplies which will be required in unheard of quantities; the problem of recruiting, training and supervising emergency personnel; the problem of providing stand-by facilities for essential utilities; and the problem of coordinating hospital facilities with other civil defense agencies, such as the Red Cross transportation and communication."

From studies made by the atomic energy commission of the effects of Japanese cities in World War II, Mr. Oseroff calculated the probable casualties from similar blasts in the cities of Pittsburgh, Johnstown and Sharon.

According to charts presented at the meeting, Pittsburgh could expect total casualties of 145,257. Of these, over 48,000 would require hospitalization. More than 290,500 pints of whole blood would be needed for transfusions. Deaths would exceed 72,600.

Johnstown would suffer 18,696 casualties of which more than 6,200 would require hospitalization. Over 37,300 pints of whole blood would be needed and there would be approximately 9,300 deaths. Sharon would have 4,171 casualties and would have to find hospital facilities for 1,390. More than 8,340 pints of whole blood would be required and there would be at least 2,000 deaths.

Present hospital facilities and personnel in Allegheny county would be unable to cope with such a situation without assistance from other areas, Mr. Oseroff pointed out. To do so, the existing emergency bed capacity of 8,400 would have to be increased to 48,400. More than 13,500 additional registered nurses, 14,600 student nurses and 6,900 nurses' aides would be needed. Hundreds of laboratory and X-ray technicians also would be in demand. More than 26,000 extra clerical and other hospital workers would be required. The heavy demand for such emergency service would require the evacuation of patients to hospitals in neighboring districts, he said.

"Although providing hospital care for the sick and injured is our normal business," Mr. Oseroff said. "The magnitude of impending demand and the problems incident to the care of casualties resulting from new methods of warfare constitute the greatest challenge in the history of hospital administration."

He stated that the experiences of other nations in past wars show that a well-organized civil defense program can reduce casualties and increase the recuperative capacity of an area by 50 per cent.

Mr. Oseroff emphasized that the plans presented at the meeting were only a small beginning toward the organization and establishment of an adequate hospital program for civil defense. He said that the success of the program depends upon the cooperation of all hospital personnel in this area and bordering districts.

It helps you digest food faster and better. Taken before meals, it works with your food. Gas pains go! Inches of bloot vanish. Contains herbs and vitamins B-1 with Iron to enrich the blood and make nerves stronger. Weak, miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering. PENNSYLVANIA PLAYER MISSED THE BOAT

"Please comment on the bidding of this hand," requests an Allentown correspondent. "It looks to me as though South ought to play the hand at three no-trump instead of four spades. He's safe enough if clubs aren't opened, or if they split 4-4. But I'll be damned if I can see who ought to bid no-trump, when neither North nor South has any semblance of a club stopper."

The defenders led three rounds of clubs, and South ruffed the third round with the nine of spades. He then laid down the three top trumps, discovering the losing heart from the South hand. bad news. He next tried to run the diamonds, hoping that West diamond, and South eventually would follow to three rounds, in which case dummy would lead a spade. He then laid down the three top trumps, discovering the losing heart from the South hand. bad news. He next tried to run the diamonds, hoping that West diamond, and South eventually had to lose a heart trick. "What do you think of all this?" I think that my Pennsylvania friend is trying to pull my leg. To begin with, three no-trump is a very poor contract—even though the actual 4-4 club break permits it to be made against any defense. In the second place, five diamonds is a very easy contract, and South should have bid it. In the third place, South could and should have made his contract of four spades. The play at four spades is very interesting. When South ruffs the third round of clubs, he should see that four trumps to the jack would be very awkward. Hence he should immediately lead the ten of spades! The chances are that West would play low—not dreaming that South would make such a play with the three top trumps. Then South would make the rest! Even if West took the jack of spades, he could do no further damage. If he led another club dummy would ruff. (This is why South must give up a trump trick at once rather than later on). If West leads anything else, South

Style Shop Notches Third Win, Youngsville Tops New Process

Style Shop marked off its third straight win in the YMCA City basketball league last night by downing the Ramblers 60 to 37. A second clash pushed the Youngsville Merchants into second place as they edged the New Process 42 to 37.

Leading by only four points at the end of the first period, the Styl-ists quickly built up a 28-12 half-time score to hand the Ramblers their worst licking this season. Rod Kerchner and Ed Lindberg were the high scorers for the victors with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Jim Peterson also had 10 for the losers.

An 11 to 2 score in the initial period of the second contest gave the Merchants their five point victory over the Process as they were outscored in both second and third quarters. Blazing the trail for top scoring honois was Bill Pollard, of the Merchants, who blasted away for 18 points. Dick Spencer shared honois with 11 to his credit, tying him in the league scoring with Jim Peterson, both having 52 points. Sheffield High's former star, Fran Wagner, did most of the scoring for the Process, ripping the net for 16 points.

Big Stakes Put Golden Spurs Back on California Jockeys

BY HARRY GRAYSON

THE SCOREBOARD

Big Stakes Put Golden Spurs Back on California Jockeys

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

EVERYONE loves money and those California winter racing programs are nothing else but Jan. 1, always an important date in racing as the universal birthday of all horses, takes an added interest in 1951 because California will start the celebration of its 100th racing anniversary.

Also the Santa Anita Maturity will come of age as the top-ranking fixture exclusively for four-year-olds and the richest race ever run. When he built fabulous Santa Anita at the foot of the Sierra Madre Mountains 16 years ago, Dr. Charles Henry Strub said he would give horsemen so much money they would have to come and get it, and found new ways to do it.

The Maturity, the fourth running of which is scheduled for Feb. 3, and its pot of gold fit in appropriately in the epic centennial. It recalls the actual gold nuggets paid winning owners of the first organized racing meet in the Golden State in 1851.

There are stories that the jockeys wore golden spurs in the early days of California racing.

The glitter of the gold—past, present and future—has an appeal. California is having another gold rush—$1,475,000 in stakes alone. The Maturity was inaugurated in 1946, and it has taken three years for the development to the high prestige and record valuable position it will attain in the 14th Santa Anita season opening Dec. 30.

THIS is how it topped them all. There were 544 yearlings, foals of 1947, nominated Jan. 1, 1948, at $25. At the start of the following two years, 276 and 89, respectively, were kept eligible as two and three-year-olds at $50 and $100. Last Jan. 1, there were two supplementary nominations at $2500.

With the $100,000 added by the Los Angeles Turf Club, it makes $141,300 already in the pot to assure that the current all-time high, $146,320, distributed for the 1946 Santa Anita Handicap, will be passed by a wide margin.

If 15 of the 91 eligibles make the final payment, $200, Jan. 1; if six pay the $10,000 supplementary nomination fee, Jan. 29, five days before the race, and 10 enter and start at $2000, it will make a total purse of $224,300.

The '49ers never saw anything like it.

Logans and Diakes split even on match points in a Coneywango Club tennis league match Monday night. Logans won the first two games by scores of 871 to 835 and 849 to 840. However, in the third round, Diakes racked up a high 963 game to the Logans' 766, to win that game and also gain enough of a margin to take the point for high match total. Best individual performers were Kirberger with 168-175-210—553 and Graham with 168-175-210—555, both for Diakes.

Even splits marked two matches in Elks Club tennis league firing last night in which the Steins were paired against Barnhart-Davis and Western Auto against Phenix Furniture. G. Budd, of the Steins' squad, notched the best series, 137-764-235—552.

Blaves blanked the Dodgers and Giants took a forfeit win from the Phillies in Monday night's Moose Club tennis league action. E. W. Cederlof, leadoff for the Braves, hit the evening's best series, 137-156-202—495.

"Deac" is a six foot three guard, weighing 195, and has annually led the Davids in scoring over a stretch of the past nine years. An exceptional setshot artist and good rebound man, he quickly hits the fancy of the fans with his free and easy method of playing and deliberate methods of scoring. The giant Irish center, Moose Shannon, towers six feet seven inches into the air and tips the scales at a mere 235 pounds. Big Moose seems to score at will from his pivot spot, winning the recognition as a future great on the pivot in his college days when he played in Madison Square Garden.

Bearded Floormen Battle Style Shop At Beaty Tonight

The House of David Basketball cagers, known all over the world as the hardwood magicians who combine comedy with high class basketball, will make their appearance here tonight against the Style Shop on Beaty gym floor at 8:30 o'clock. A preliminary contest will be played at 7:30 between the Youngsville Merchants and the Ramblers.

This is the first time the Bearded team has appeared in Warren in about 18 years, when they played the famous Warren Independents, coached by Jerry Archibald.

Don Lunquist, Style Shop manager and coach, will present a fast breaking team that is full of height tonight in such former Warren stars as Gail Nelson, Bob Simpson, Jack Ealon, George Hesch and Wainie Check.

The David manager-coach, Ham Hamilton, will of course have a veteran team to put on the floor that will undoubtedly be holding the upper hand in the game.

Owners Fail To Renew Contract Of A. B. Chandler

St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 12—(P)—Failure to renew Albert B. Chandler's contract as baseball commissioner exploded a bombshell last night that left the entire sports world agog.

Flabbergasted by the major league club owners' decision, the baseball people attending the winter meetings were wondering what the next move would be. About the calmest persons here were the club owners themselves.

The most surprised man was Chandler. So stunned was the commissioner upon hearing the adverse news that he immediately resigned, then changed his mind and decided to finish out his current five-year term which expires May 1, 1952.

The anti-Chandler group is willing to buy up his contract if he will resign. Chandler's pay was officially announced last December to be $65,000 a year. It was then that the owners voted to grant him a $15,000 raise.

One anti-Chandler leader, who declined use of his name, said owners were prepared to fire Chandler on the spot but cited a baseball rule that forbids the releasing of the commissioner before the expiration of his contract.

"We are prepared to pay him for the remaining 17 months tomorrow," the owner said, "if he were to resign. That would be the best thing for the commissioner to do. It would save a lot of embarrassment and pave the way for the search for a new commissioner."

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

New York—(AP)—Success stories are still being written in American business by small or middle-sized firms. And enterprising, or venturesome, men continue to start new ones at an impressive rate.

The spotlight has been more on the big corporations. Their swelling totals of sales, production and earnings since the war are more exciting to a public nurtured on the super-colossal, whether it be in movies or in bombs.

But the National City Bank of New York has been taking a look at this and concludes that while the postwar growth of the corporate giants has been great, many small and medium-sized business have grown even faster.

"Small companies are growing into medium-sized ones, and medium-sized concerns into larger ones, as they have always done in American industrial history," the bank notes in its December letter.

"At the same time, the prosperity of most large companies is tied closely with that of the many smaller ones upon which they depend as suppliers, subcontractors, and distributors."

In its study the bank took 292 companies which prior to 1945 issued no financial statements because "they were relatively small or medium-sized and closely held."
When they started issuing statements in 1945 none of the 292 had sales totalling more than $25 million, only 10 were in the $20-25 million class, and the greatest number, 85, had less than $2.5 million in sales each.

Total sales for the 292 companies were around $1.8 billion in 1945, but had grown to $2.7 billion in 1949, a gain of 50 per cent. By comparison, the sales total for all manufacturing corporations in the nation in 1945 was $128.7 billion, and in 1949 was $182.4 billion, a gain of 31 per cent.

The gains of the 85 smallest companies were most impressive—94 per cent higher sales volume in 1949 than in 194

SHORTS AND SHELLS
Bradley U. basketball followers are agog over the sharpshooting of Fred Schlechtman who canned 18 baskets in 29 shots in the first three games. . . . He uses the same kind of two-hand shot that

Dike Eddleman introduced to big time college ball from Contralia, Ill., high school. . . . The targets hockey roster includes A. Welshman, Jack Evans, and A. Finn, Pentti Lund, who can cuss the referees in their native tongues. . . . Harry Von Kriesburg, former Harvard All-American who checks officials for the eastern conference, says he saw the best officiating ever this football season. But he still believes the ECAC should retire some of the older men who can't keep pace with modern football, and he likes that fifth-man idea. . . . Five Sophomore footballers at Fordham have just heard from their draft boards and will be departing in June. There goes that "comeback."

CLEANING THE CUFF

That presidential cup football game Saturday was a preliminary to a home-and-home series between Georgia and Texas A. and M. . . . Suppose the Bulldogs would like to call it off? . . . It's the "Purdue soccer club" that will oppose Penn State in the soccer bowl game at St. Louis Jan. 1, soccer isn't a recognized college sport at Purdue.

Seoul.—(P)—One of the last Americans to leave Red Pyongyang had to fight back an impulse to burn down the city hall.

He is Col. Charles R. Munske of 2718 Avenue K, Brooklyn, military governor of the North Korean capital. He had spent six weeks organizing a new civic government for Pyongyang and restoring the transport system and water and power supply.

Then in a few hours last Sunday the colonel rather ruefully saw the fruits of his six weeks of hard work go up in smoke and debris as American demolition engineers blew up the repaired bridges and power stations.

But Munske was in full accord with the American Army policy of leaving nothing behind that would be of any help to the Chinese Reds.

"When I went into my office in the city hall for the last time to burn my papers," he said, "I felt like turning over the stove and burning down the building. But I didn't have the heart to do it."

That was Monday morning. The city appeared empty of all Allied military personnel except for British rear guard troops and the 20 members of his own Eighth Army civil assistance team.

"There was no rioting or looting—everything was peaceful," the colonel said. "I had kept 1,000 city policemen behind to keep order, but then I decided it was time to let them make their own escape. I gave them the word and they marched south across the bridge. I hope the South Koreans will take them into their army. They were good loyal men."

One of his chief regrets about the evacuation was that he had to leave behind in the city jail about 800 North Koreans being held for political crimes.

"The turnkey had run off with the key," Munske said, "and we had to leave them there to be freed by Reds when they come in. But before that we had taken 38 of the prisoners and sent them south by rail. They were the worst of the lot—men we were holding for trial as war criminals. They will still have to face justice."

Munske and his detachment left Pyongyang Monday afternoon in eight vehicles. They reached here late Wednesday, half frozen after a nightmare 165-mile journey through bitter weather.

A patchwork adhesive tape covered the forehead of the colonel, a stout, white-haired officer of middle age who served as an industrial engineer in civil life.

"Just souvenir cuts I got when one of our ammo dumps blew up," he smiled.

His entire detachment narrowly escaped death when the ammunition dump suddenly exploded near its quarters in South Pyongyang Sunday night.

"The first report was that it had been set off by Communists," the colonel said. "But later we heard it started from a fire in an American truck."

"The dump had everything in it from .45 caliber pistol bullets to several thousand artillery shells. We heard a series of explosions and then what sounded like the constant firing of small arms. We could hear projectiles going over the building or falling on the roof like big hailstones."

"I rose and dressed. Then there came two tremendous blasts and flying glass cut most of the men." The second blast threw Munske and one of his officers—Lt. Bruce C. Fisher of Asheville, N. C.—off their feet and out into the kitchen. It also turned over a gas stove and set the living room on fire. The men beat out the flames, covered the stove with blankets and tossed it outside.

Fearing the weakened building might collapse, Munske led his detachment on foot out through the danger area. They shivered for two hours outside a Korean home.

"The night was lit with showers of sparks everywhere," the colonel said. "Chunks of metal as big as a shoe were falling in the darkness. Windows were crashing and whole fronts of buildings were caving in." The explosions continued intermittently until 6 a. m. But the group returned to their billet as soon as the main blast ended.

"Luckily none of our vehicles had been hit," Munske said. "But the building was pockmarked with scars and the whole area looked like a junkyard."

In the midst of the jagged metal debris lying in the yards rested blackened and unexploded 90 pound artillery shell. "I don't know how many casualties there were," said Munske. "All I saw was the body of a dog."
